

Christopher Whisenhunt is a proud graduate of McIntosh High School, Class of 1994. Following graduation, he accepted academic and athletic scholarships to attend Miles College, where he distinguished himself both in the classroom and on the football field.

As a member of the Miles College Golden Bears football team under Head Coach Cecil Leonard, Christopher was a four-year starting running back. During his freshman and sophomore seasons (1994–1995), he served as Special Teams Captain. In his junior and senior seasons, he led the team in rushing and played a key role in helping the Golden Bears achieve their first winning season in more than a decade, restoring the program's status as one of the premier teams in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC).

Christopher earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and Business Administration from Miles College in 1998. Committed to lifelong learning, he later earned a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Troy University.

Professionally, Christopher serves as the Director of Research Finance for the Department of Surgery in the Heersink School of Medicine at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB), where he oversees research finance operations and supports the institution's academic and research mission.

Christopher is married to his wife, Jennefer, a fellow Miles College alumna. Together, they are the proud parents of two sons, Justin and Jalen. Throughout his personal and professional life, Christopher remains committed to exemplifying the values of leadership, integrity, service, and excellence, reflecting the proud traditions of both his family and his alma mater, Miles College.
